NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH PROGRAM TOWNHALL MEETING

On Wednesday, February 6, 2013, the Lake Elsinore Police and Sheriff's Station will be hosting a Town Hall meeting for residents interested in starting a Neighborhood Watch program within their community. Neighborhood Watch is one of the most effective and least costly answers to reduce crime.

The goal of the presentation is to inform participants of the importance of Neighborhood Watch and provide strategies on starting a Neighborhood Watch program within their community. Neighborhood Watch is a community-based program supported by the National Sheriffs' Association, and since its inception in 1972, thousands of communities have successfully established Neighborhood Watch programs.

Representatives from the City and Lake Elsinore Citizens Corp will also take part in the presentation. The location will be at the Lake Elsinore Police and Sheriff Station's Community Room, located at 333 W. Limited Ave, Lake Elsinore. The meeting will begin at 6:00 p.m.

Lake Elsinore residents are encouraged to attend and will accompany residents from the City of Wildomar and the surrounding areas. Anyone interested in attending the meeting is encouraged to contact Officer Baca of the Lake Elsinore Police Department at (951) 245-3300 or via Email at: rbaca@riversidesheriff.org.
