City's Clean Extreme Program Taking Place Next Saturday, Volunteers Needed

Volunteers, community organizations and businesses will come together to remove trash, weeds and debris from three areas of the city.

LAKE ELSINORE, CA – The City of Lake Elsinore, in cooperation with local area churches, businesses, and organizations, will be conducting its “Clean Extreme” event on Saturday, June 15, 2013 from 7:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

The City began the “Clean Extreme” cleanup program last year. The event is designed to bring together the community and volunteers to help cleanup parts of the City. This year, the designated cleanup areas are the Presidential Tract, 3rd Street Annexation and Riverside Drive between Lakeshore Drive & Grand Ave.

Residents of these areas are encouraged to place any trash, bulky items or debris on the curb for free trash pick-up on this date. Cleanup activities include removing trash and debris, trimming and removing weeds, and abating graffiti on structures.

Volunteers are invited to participate. Following the event, there will be a free BBQ for volunteers at the Storm Stadium from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m. In addition, volunteers will receive a free ticket to be used at any 2013 Storm game. There will be a pre-event kickoff meeting at Seers Plaza (32391 Riverside Drive) at 7:30 a.m., which will include sign-up forms and instructions. Volunteers need to wear proper shoes (no flip-flops, sandals, etc.) and attire and may want to bring gloves, masks, water, hats, and sunscreen. To volunteer or for more information, visit www.Lake-Elsinore.org or call (951) 674-5170.
