The New Lake Elsinore Sports Complex

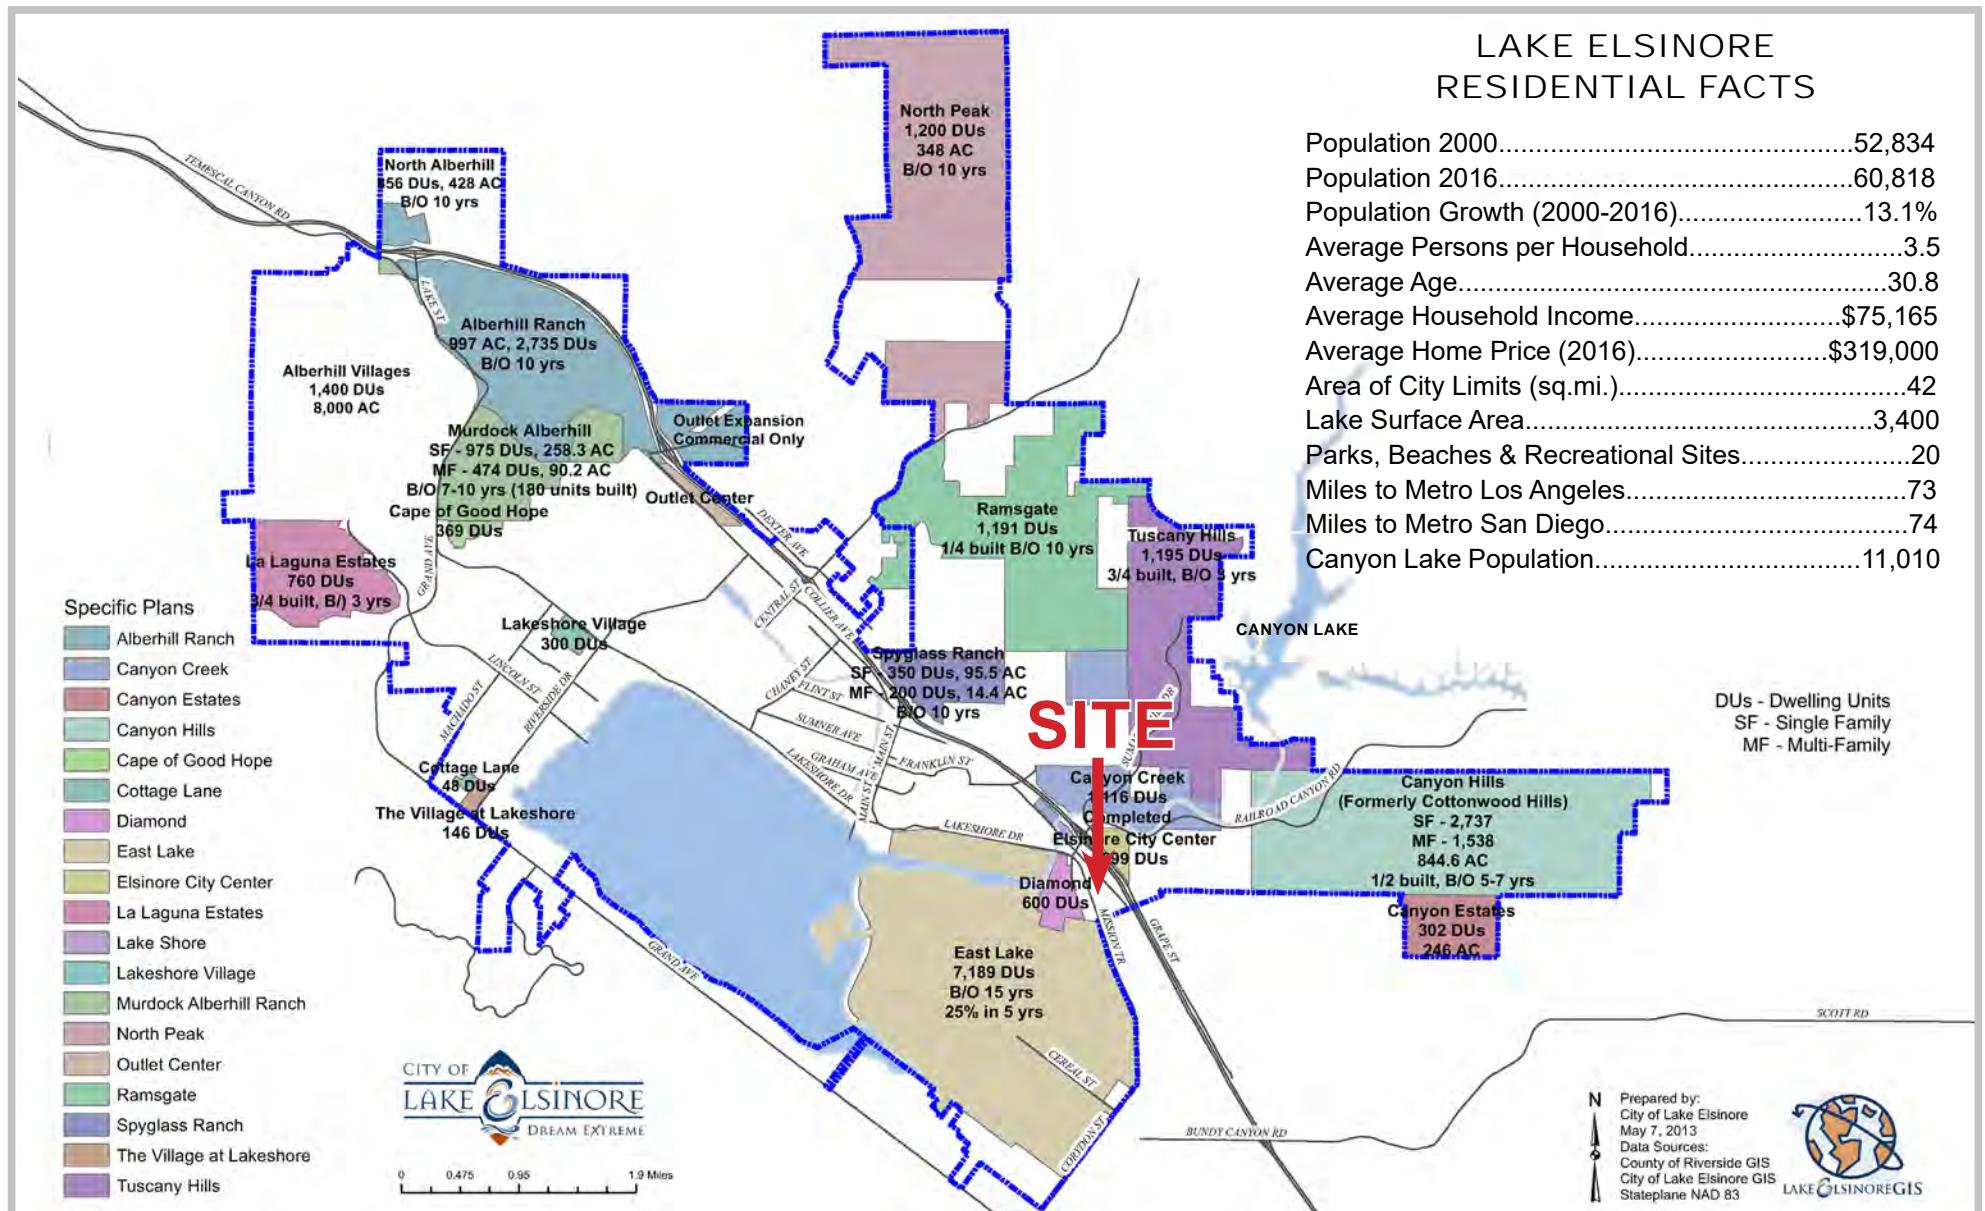

The 520,000-square-foot, two-story sports center will be built on a 23-acre vacant lot just north of the city owned minor-league baseball stadium, The Diamond. As proposed, the building will accommodate 58 volleyball courts that can be converted to 33 basketball courts and it will host other large events as well. Among numerous features, it will include a 3,000-seat championship arena plus restaurants and a sports bar.
